Following are some highlighted points of the session about the future of HRM

Employees are the foundation of any business or organization. Nothing can replace the value of a responsible human providing service to a firm.

The business landscape has changed to the point where employees are no longer just laborers looking for a paycheck but are now seen as a resource.

Human resource management is the name given to the management of this resource. It also entails fostering a long-term, healthy, and cooperative working environment for employees.

The HR team builds the foundation of the company where every employee thrives.

Other important parts of an organization's HR department include performance evaluation, health and welfare, workforce rules, incentives, and compensation, and safety evaluation. HR is one of the most promising and well-defined specializations in business administration.

HR professionals are the backbone of every organization, which is why they are in such high demand in both the private and public sectors.

An HR administrator must guarantee that all actions, such as employee recruitment, settlement, benefits, compensation, training, and development, are carried out in accordance with business policy.

Human resource management is all about managing availability and correctly utilizing resources. It entails finding the proper people, educating them to be productive on the job, and devising motivation and inspiration tactics for them.

To work in human resources, you'll need a specific set of talents. These abilities shape not only an HR manager's work life but also their personal interactions with employees.

Effective communication, dispute resolution, change management, negotiating skills, flexibility, planning skills, and supervisory quality are among these qualities.

Job satisfaction is linked to an employee's psychology in the workplace. Employees who are happy strive to perform to the best of their abilities.

- The session continued with students asking questions regarding their future career in industry as well as recent trends in HRM in the industry. She also emphasized on the fact that there is no shortcut in life to achieve success unless you put labour into it as 'the word labour comes first in the dictionary than success'.

Ms. Vanidhani Geeta concluded her speech by urging everyone to close their eyes, realize what they want to do with their life, pull up their socks and dive deep in their mission.

• The program ended with a vote of thanks by Ms. Komal Kamra (Co-ordinator), Faculty , BMS Department who thanked Ms. Vanidhani Geeta for taking out time from his busy schedule and motivating as well as guiding the students of the Department for better career growth.

Following are some highlighted points of the session about the future of HRM

Technology is transforming the banking industry so rapidly that anything less than around-the-clock electronic access to bank accounts seems unthinkable. While predictions vary widely as to how soon and to what extent online banking will become a routine part of most people's lives, there is no doubt that technology - especially Internet technology - is having a huge impact on the financial services industry.

The transformation ignited by the Internet is creating a new paradigm in the financial services industry, characterized by surprising business structures. Financial innovation improves institutions' ability to sustain themselves and reach out to the underprivileged. As a result, the development of financial markets and the IT sector are closely interconnected. Specifically, they share a positive correlation.

There is a two-way learning curve between the traditional firms and those that are grounded in the Internet. Certainly, the Internet-only operations have proved that online financial services are viable.

As consumers become savvier about what the Web has to offer, they will ask for and expect more. Learning from their own and each other's triumphs and failures, firms will fine-tune their Internet offerings to meet the demands of their customers. In that context, the future of online financial services presents an especially rosy picture.

Thereafter Ms. Komal Kamra (Co-ordinator), H.O.D, BMS Department presented concluding remarks and mentioned the importance of reaching out to alumni and their interaction with current students and advised the students to adhere to the worthy suggestions given by the learned and accomplished speaker.

Program concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms. Karuna Tejwani, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies, who thanked the speaker for sparing valuable time to mentor our students.

He also thanked, Faculty of Management Studies for reaching out to the speaker and inviting her, thanked student volunteers who managed the programme and the support staff for actively helping out in the smooth conduct of the same.

Program followed with Presentation of memento to the alumni by Head, Department of Management Studies, a time where speaker became nostalgic and mentioned that he felt honoured to be invited by her alma mater for such a session and being felicitated by her teacher. The program was well attended by students, who participated enthusiastically and interacted with the speaker.

Report on Expertise on Cost Accounting

Department of commerce organized expertise on cost accounting of on 4th JANUARY, 2020

15 Students attended the session. The speaker for the session was Mr.Gopi Shamnani Asst. Prof. of CHM College. Cost accounting is a form of managerial accounting that aims to capture a company's total cost of production by assessing the variable costs of each step of production as well as fixed costs, such as a lease expense.

The speaker emphasized some important guidelines regarding Cost Accounting they are as follows:

- Cost accounting is used internally by management in order to make fully informed business decisions.
- Unlike financial accounting, which provides information to external financial statement users, cost accounting is not required to adhere to set standards and can be flexible to meet the particular needs of management.
- As such, cost accounting cannot be used on official financial statements and is not GAAP-compliant.
- Cost accounting considers all input costs associated with production, including both variable and fixed costs.
- Types of cost accounting include standard costing, activity-based costing, lean accounting, and marginal costing.

The speaker was enlightened about cost-accounting methods developed by and tailor. Unlike the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB)-driven financial accounting, cost accounting need only concern itself with insider eyes and internal purposes. Management can analyse information based on criteria that it specifically values, which guides how prices are set, resources are distributed, capital is raised, and risks are assumed.

And later the meeting concluded on asking interactive questions from students.

Brief report of Key Highlights and Takeaways from Union Budget of India, 2018(in association with Department of BAF, BMS, BCOM) held on 13th July, 2018

CA Vandan Ahuja from Wipro Ltd, Mumbai was invited to speak with the self financing students and Commerce students. He was asked to motivate and guide them. The students also were so enthusiastic to see him.

Details of the program:

- The program started with welcome speech by Ms.Komal Bodhwani (Co-ordinator), H.O.D, BCOM Department where she introduced CA Vandan Ahuja with self-financing and BCom students.
- Mr.Vandan Ahuja started his speech with special thanks to all the faculties as well as staffs for supporting and inviting him

Following are some highlighted points of the session about the Union Budget

Government says that it is firmly on course to achieve high growth of 8% plus as manufacturing, services and exports are back on a good growth path. While GDP growth at 6.3% in the second quarter of 2017-18 signalled a turnaround of the economy, growth in the second half is likely to remain between 7.2% to 7.5%. The Union Minister for Finance and Corporate Affairs Shri Arun Jaitley while presenting the General Budget 2018-19 in Parliament today said that Indian society, polity and economy had shown remarkable resilience in adjusting with the structural reforms.

IMF, in its latest Update, has forecast that India will grow at 7.4% next year in the backdrop of services resuming high growth rates of 8% plus, exports expected to grow at 15% in 2017-18 and manufacturing back on a good growth path.

Reiterating the pledge given to the people of India four years ago to give this nation an honest, clean and transparent Government and to build a strong, confident and a New India, Shri Jaitley said, the Government led by Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, has successfully implemented a series of fundamental structural reforms to propel India among the fastest growing economies of the world.

The Finance Minister said that Government has taken up programmes to direct the benefits of structural changes and good growth to reach farmers, poor and other vulnerable sections of our society and to uplift the under-developed regions. He said, this year's Budget will consolidate these gains and particularly focus on strengthening agriculture and rural economy, provision of good health care to economically less privileged, taking care of senior citizens, infrastructure creation and working with the States to provide more resources for improving the quality of education in the country.

He said, the Government has ensured that benefits reach eligible beneficiaries and are delivered to them directly and said that Direct Benefit Transfer mechanism of India is the biggest such exercise in the world and is a global success story.

- The session continued with students asking questions regarding the Union budget.
- The session ended with vote of thanks by Ms. Priyanka Bhambere, Faculty, BMS Department who thanked CA Vandan Ahuja for taking out time from his busy schedule and motivating as well as guiding the students of Department for better career growth.

Brief report of expert session on Financial Literacy Workshop by BSE

Ms. Manya hardwani, consumer Guidance Society of india (CGSI) LD SONAWANE college kalyan (W) was invited to speak with the BMS students. He was asked to motivate and guide them. The students also were so enthusiastic to see him.

Details of the program:

- The program started with a welcome speech by Ms. (Co-ordinator), H.O.D, BMS Department where she introduced Ms Manya Hardwani with BMS students.
- Ms Manya Hardwani started his speech with special thanks to all the faculties as well as staffs for supporting and inviting him

Following are some highlighted points of the session: - Financial Literacy Workshop by BSE

“Taking financial literacy to the remotest part of the country will help industry participants understand the various facets of the formal economy,” Sameer Patil, BSE CBO said.

Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) on Friday has partnered with Vidarbha Chamber of Commerce and Industry to deepen the commodity markets in the country. The partnership aims to facilitate cooperation between BSE and physical markets in areas such as knowledge sharing, education and training, events as well as to explore all areas of mutual interest, the exchange said in a statement.

“Taking financial literacy to the remotest part of the country will help industry participants understand the various facets of the formal economy. This MoU is an affirmation and recognition of our efforts to bring physical market participants to the exchange platform and continuing our sustained campaign,” Sameer Patil, BSE CBO said.

Financial mistakes made at any stage of life can be costly. To avoid such mistakes, financial literacy is very important. Financial literacy is buzzword now days, and its importance has accepted all over the world. Financial literacy is required for any financial decision making. But his term is subjective in nature.

So it varies according to investors. Investing in stock market is still not so popular in India because of its complicated nature and lack of financial literacy.

- • The session continued with students asking questions regarding the Be a Banker-Competition.
- • The session ended with vote of thanks by Ms. Komal Kamra(Co-ordinator), Faculty , BMS Department who thanked Ms. Manya hardwani for taking out time from his busy schedule and motivating as well as guiding the students of the Department for better career growth.

Report

On

“Rebranding-Repositioning of Brand”

9th AUGUST, 2019

Submitted by

Ms. Komal Kamra (Co-ordinator) Dept. of Management Studies

OBJECTIVE:

1. To build confidence in the students and to encourage them to share knowledge on marketing.
2. To improve the Marketing skills of the students.

OUTCOME: Students' Knowledge on Marketing Concepts were revised. In-depth theoretical knowledge on Rebranding-Repositioning of Brand were shared.

Description of Expert Session:

Session on the topic "Rebranding-Repositioning of Brand" was conducted on the 9th AUGUST, 2019 at Swami Hansmuni Maharaj College, Ulhasnagar for 25 BMS students.

Ms. Anupama Bijlani CEO, Career Help Mate, Certified Global Career Counsellor was invited as a resource person for the session. The speaker highlighted the concepts related to "Your brand is ultimately built on reputation and visibility, with your name, logo and strapline being important visual representations of your brand. They're central to how you're perceived but how they are managed relative to your entire customer experience is critically important."

Rebranding is the creation of a new look and feel for an established product or company. The usual goal of rebranding is to influence a customer's perception about a product or service or the company overall by revitalizing the brand and making it seem more modern and relevant to the customer's needs.

When a company changes the status of a brand in the marketplace but maintains its identity at the same time, it is called "brand repositioning". As part of this process, changes are typically made to the marketing strategy such as product, price, place, or promotion.

Marketing is a system of Business activities designed to plan, promote, price and distribute want satisfying products, services & ideas to target markets in order to achieve organizational goals.

Marketing is a critical business function for most for-profit and non-profit businesses. Marketing is a broad process that includes research, product design and development, promotion and customer service. Much of the marketing function centres on a handful or core principles, strategies and tactics.

The study of Rebranding-Repositioning of Brand would help better understand how well to manage marketing activities. Being responsible for both making money for the company and delivering satisfaction to your customers makes marketing a great career.

Komal.
